

I am very much opposed to the proposed changes regulating media ownership. The current corporate media is a vast wasteland of crap that is dumbing down our citizens.

You should have someone (Committee?) check out Japan's NHK television to see how good TV can be.

More concentrated Corporate control will only make things worse for the USA.